

Some Time-changed Point Processes

Federico Polito<sup>*1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Department of Mathematics G. Peano, University of Torino, Torino, Italy

We will present a class of point processes displaying long memory but retaining a mathematical tractability. These processes are constructed by means of a time-change procedure with different random time processes connected to a specific subclass of Lévy processes. Distributional and path properties are also discussed.

---

*federico.polito@unito.it